Note: For purposes of this question, “owned” means directly or indirectly holding more than 5% of voting membership rights or voting stock or other ownership interest in an entity, and “controlled” means comprising more than 5% of the directors, trustees or other members of the governing body of an entity.

| 6. Any entity with which any of your relatives, as listed above, is associated as an officer, director, trustee or partner: |         |        |

B. Has the Corporation invested in any corporate stock in which you own more than 5% of the outstanding shares?

C. Has any property of the Corporation been held in the name of, or commingled with the property of, any Related Party as indicated above?

These documents are for use by nonprofit organizations only.
D. Has the Corporation been a party to any transaction in which you have held a material financial interest, or have you received anything of value from the Corporation not reported as compensation and not disclosed above?

E. Has the Corporation made a grant award or contribution to any organization in which you have a relationship, e.g., as a director, officer or employee?

F. Has the Corporation provided a grant or other assistance to you or any of your relatives (as defined at page two, above)?

G. Is any director, trustee, officer, or senior employee of the Corporation a relative (as defined at page two, above) of yours?

H. Do you have a business relationship with any director, trustee, officer or senior employee of the Corporation?

According to IRS instructions, a “business relationship” between two persons includes any of the following:

1. A person is employed by the other: (a) in a business or organization with which the other is associated as a trustee, director, officer, key employee or greater-than-35% owner; or (b) in a sole proprietorship. Exception: this does not include employment by this Corporation.

2. A person is transacting business with the other (other than in the ordinary course of either party’s business on the same terms as are generally offered to the public), directly or indirectly, in one or more contracts of sale, lease, license, loan, performance of services, or other transaction involving transfers of cash or property valued in excess of $10,000 in the aggregate during the organization’s tax year. Such transactions do not include charitable contributions to tax-exempt organizations. Indirect transactions are transactions with an organization with which the one person is associated as a trustee, director, officer, key employee or greater-than-35% owner.

3. The two persons are each a director, trustee, officer, or greater-than-10% owner in the same business or investment entity (but not in the same tax-exempt organization).

For these purposes, ownership is measured by stock ownership (either voting power or value) of a corporation, profits or capital interest in a partnership or limited liability company, membership interest in a nonprofit organization, or beneficial interest in a trust.

These documents are for use by nonprofit organizations only.
Ownership includes indirect ownership (for example, ownership in an entity that has ownership in the entity in question), including ownership through multiple tiers of entities.

Privileged relationship exception. For purposes of this question, a “business relationship” does not include a relationship between an attorney and client, a medical professional (including psychologist) and patient, or a priest/clergy and penitent/communicant.

I. Have you received a gift or favor from anyone outside of the Corporation that might influence, or which could reasonably be interpreted as intended to influence, your performance of Corporation duties?

   Yes  No

K. Have you disclosed or used Corporation information for the profit, advantage, or benefit of anyone other than the Corporation?

   Yes  No

My explanation of any “yes” answer or answers indicated above is:
